

PRA Well-Being Launches Wellness Resources Page

PRA Well-Being has launched a new Well-Being and Wellness resources webpage! The new page makes PRA's wellness-related tools, resources, and trainings accessible to the field on demand. Visitors can access podcasts, animated videos, fact sheets, journal articles, workbooks, and more on this new page. The resources are organized by topic area, such as identity and wellness, youth and young adults, and workplace wellness. Visit the Well-Being webpage to learn more and to download these free resources.

New Article Promotes Reentry Success With SOAR

The January/February 2019 issue of American Jails Magazine published an article promoting reentry success through income supports and the SSI/SSDI Outreach, Access, and Recovery (SOAR) model, written by PRA staff members. The article, Promoting Reentry Success Through Increased Access to Social Security Benefits, explores how jails across the United States are implementing the SOAR model to connect individuals reentering the community who are at risk of homelessness to income supports. Alamogordo Enhances Safety of Individuals in Crisis

Alamogordo, New Mexico, a Bureau of Justice Assistance VALOR Initiative Law Enforcement and Community: Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Training Model Program site, has implemented a new practice to enhance the safety of individuals experiencing a mental health crisis and responding law enforcement officers. Officers on the scene now call the Crisis Intervention Team mental health lead to assist them in determining whether an individual should be brought directly to behavioral health treatment services or detention.
